What did you study in history? I think it's important to learn IT at school. I enjoy reading so I liked literature at school. I'm good with numbers so I like maths. We do PE to be healthy at school. Our science lessons are fun. We do experiments. She went to an elementary school in New York. He went to a high school in Los Angeles. We studied math in both elementary and high school. We studied maths in both primary and secondary school. He went to a primary school in London. She went to a secondary school in Oxford. Can you give me some advice? I have a problem. I advise you to choose your university carefully. It's your choice. What do you want to do? I choose to go to the park this afternoon. We like to compete in sports and games. Did you win the competition? Well done! I often confuse my right and left. When two people have the same name it causes confusion. People remember the death of Nelson Mandela in 2013. Can you help me decide? I need to buy new trainers. I made a decision to stop eating chocolate.
